The company has some additional plans to get everyone excited for the big race day. “We’ll be turning our web site pink the week prior to the race, and also making an additional donation to the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Greater Atlanta Affiliate for every employee that wears pink to the office the Friday prior to the race,” said Dan Michaels, Sales Principal and Owner of Innovative Architects.

Michelle’s Angel’s team member, Stephany Fisher, from WGCL- TV CBS Atlanta said, “I was a proud member of Michelle’s Angel’s last year and was overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and support shown by all the race participants. It was a fun morning of walking in the beautiful May sunshine among strong breast cancer survivors and the people who love them. I encourage anyone to become a part of this great event.”

This is Innovative Architects’s third year participating in the Komen Atlanta Race for the Cure under the team Michelle’s Angel’s.
